

Programme

Ageing: The Interface Between Community, Clinic and Laboratory

Wednesday
28 September 2011

Multidisciplinary Conference on Ageing and Neuroscience

12pm Light lunch and poster session

1pm Welcome
--Vice-Chancellor Professor Don Nutbeam in the presence of Dame Mary Fagan DCVO, HM Lord-Lieutenant of Hampshire

1:10pm Professor Jane Falkingham
--Population change: The challenges and opportunities of an ageing society

1:30pm Professor Maria Evandrou
--Modelling the future demand and supply of social care in the United Kingdom

1:50pm Dr Roxana Carare
--Maintaining the health of blood vessels could prevent Alzheimer's Disease

2:10pm Professor Andrew Lotery
--Progress in treating macular degeneration

2:30pm Tea/Coffee Break

2:50pm Professor Clive Holmes
--Past and future treatments for Alzheimer's Disease

3:10pm Professor James Nicoll
--Immunisation for Alzheimer's Disease

3:30pm Tea/Coffee Break

3:50pm Professor Peter Coleman
--The role of religious and secular ritual in adaptation to bereavement in later life

4:10pm Anne Carty, Age Concern Southampton
--Keeping Your Brain Healthy

4:30pm Ruth Dixon, Assistant Director of Adult Services, Hampshire County Council
--The Challenges in Planning Services in Hampshire and the Role of Research

4:50pm Wine Reception, Refreshments and Poster Prizes

Location

Turner Sims Concert Hall
University of
Southampton, Highfield
SO17 1BJ

Programme Board

Professor Avan Aihie
Sayer, Professor George
Attard, Dr Roxana
Carare, Professor Maria
Evandrou, Professor
Lindy Holden-Dye,
Professor Clive Holmes,
Professor Peter J. Smith

University Strategic Research Groups

This conference is presented by the Ageing & Lifelong Health USRG,
the Institute for Life Sciences USRG, and the Neuroscience USRG.

Contact

Petrina Butler
p.butler@soton.ac.uk
023 8059 3244

Twitter Hashtag

#ageingsoton